Program Summary

The Waynesville R-VI School District will have AmeriCorps Members provide academic support, mentoring, service-learning, enrichment, and fitness and wellness support to students, of whom over 75% are military-affiliated, in the Waynesville, Saint Robert, and Fort Leonard Wood communities of Missouri. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps Members will be responsible for increasing student achievement of K-8, at-risk and military-affiliated students through member- and volunteer-supported tutoring and mentoring programs during the regular school day and in the afterschool setting. In addition, the AmeriCorps Members will leverage an additional 1,000 leveraged volunteers who will be engaged in providing educational enrichment and support to students in the Waynesville R-VI School District. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Veterans and Military Families and Education.
